

Checklist for Login Page

- Verify that there are input fields for username/email and password.
- Verify that the input fields have appropriate placeholders.
- Verify the login process with correct credentials.
- Verify that login fails with invalid credentials.
- Verify the case sensitivity for usernames and passwords.
- Check that the appropriate error messages are displayed for invalid credentials.
- Verify that error messages disappear when corrected information is entered.
- Verify the "Forgot Password" link/button.
- Verify that users can reset their password successfully.
- Verify for the password reset emails (if applicable).
- Verify the "Remember Me" checkbox functionality.(if available)
- Verify that the system remembers the user's login credentials if selected.
- Check that the user remains logged in across sessions if "Remember Me" is selected.
- Check for protection against attacks (e.g., account lockout after multiple failed attempts).
- Check for the keyboard navigation in different fields of the page.
- Verify the layout and alignment of elements on the login page.
- Verify that the login page is responsive and displays properly on different screen sizes and devices.
- Verify the login page with different languages and character sets (if applicable).
- Verify that text and messages are translated correctly.
- Test the login page across different web browsers (e.g.,Chrome, Firefox, Edge).
- Verify consistent behaviour and appearance across browsers.
- Check for responsiveness and delays in processing login requests.
- Verify that users are redirected to the correct page after successful login.
- Verify for session expiration of the login page.
- Check for proper logout functionality.

- Test simultaneous login attempts from multiple users.
- Test the login page's responsiveness on different mobile devices